SHANGHAI.

The N.-O. Daily News gives the following description of the Iltis memorial which is to be unveiled at Shanghai on Monday, the 21st inst. — The monument is a markedly artistic work in bronze. It represents a broken mast stepped in tiers of granite on a four-step pedestal, the whole height being something over twenty-five feet. A flag and a wreath, also in bronze, are lying at the foot of the mast. The mast itself is a most realistic work of Shanghai, Nov. 17.

It is a regrettable circumstance, if not a somewhat curious coincidence, that the German flagship Goetter, with Admiral von Dönhofs on board, should have met with Minahang while hurrying up from the South, and take part in the ceremonies in connection with the unveiling of the monument to commemorate the heroes who went down in the Titit. It is also a coincidence that the German flagship should have been anchored in Samah Bay, a place on which the Germans were casting longing eyes.

in view of the receipt of news last night of the accident to the flagship, the cruiser Arcata, which was lying at Woonung, having only just arrived from Manila, was despatched outside this morning to incept Prince Henry and the other warships from the North in order that H.R.H. might take steps to render the Kaiser active assistance. It is not known whether Prince Henry will proceed himself to Samash, but it is certain that three if not the whole four of his squadron will do so; the Kaiser being in a very large and heavy vessel, requiring a eat deal to move her once she is rendered powerless, as it is feared she has been. It is not known yet whether there has been any loss of life in the accident, but it is not thought likely. It is almost certain, however, that the mishap will entail the postponement of the functions fixed for Monday which it was intended should afford the despatched to the assistance of the stranded ship, and though the accident will require the German landing party by over 1,000 men, a brave show ought nevertheless be made with the crews of the ships at Woosung and in the river.—China

The following telegram has been received by the Shanghai Tactai from the Viceroy at Nanking:—Great Britain and the United States have requested for an extension of the Anglo-American Settlements at Shanghai and the Central Government at Peking has acceded to the said request. With instructions that I should amount and the United States for the settlement of the said extension. As I am, however, now engaged in settling the Ningpo Commemorative Riot affair with the French Consul-General, you are hereby instructed to have communication with the said German growing-up of late in Kobe in connection with subscription lists that is to be deprecated. A list is sent round with the names of all the members of a society, or all the members of the community for that matter, and those who subscribe insert the amount in the dollar and cent column, while those who do not wish to subscribe have to put down 'No' opposite their names and the board make public the fact that they do not wish to participate in the testimonial or whatever else for which the money is to be used. The practice is fair, neither to the person who is to benefit by the testimonial, nor the person who is asked to subscribe. The proper course would be to send a blank in-round and a separate paper for people sign to show that they had seen it. This would remove the idea of compulsion which is too often associated with the subscription list.

MR. J. HARRY WATERS, Headmaster, STATION SCHOOL, BARNES, ENGLAND, says: 'I regard Chamberlain's Pain-Balm as a most useful household medicine. Have seen it used for toothache, rheumatism, and once on a very hot, swelled foot, and in each of these instances the Pain-Balm acted like a charm.'

Every one who uses Chamberlain's Pain-Balm always speaks in the same terms. It should be kept in every medicine chest. CHAMBERLAIN'S PAIN-BALM is sold everywhere. Price, 50 cts., and $1. General Agents:—WATKINS & Co.
